Carrie worked so hard on the yearbook that she couldn't stay awake in class.

Working on the yearbook really aged these girls.

STAFF

Mrs. Guillemette's job wasn't an E-z one this year.

Carmen Paniss was part of our literary section this year.

Julie Cialdea worked hard getting ads for us.

Rob was disappointed when we turned down his idea for a Star Trek theme.

Mrs. Langenberg and Mrs. Guillemette — thought this job was a piece of cake — NOT!!!

OVER 35 YEARS OF

Mr. Canestrari, who will retire at the beginning of the 1996-1997 school year, has had a long and prestigious career teaching at Bellingham for over 35 years. After graduating from Providence College in 1958, he began to teach here at the old South School in such subjects as English, U.S. History, and Science. When B.H.S. opened in 1964, he immediately moved in and began teaching primarily grade 8 students.

In 1969, after 10 years of teaching in Bellingham, he was promoted to assistant principal and was forced to deal with such problems as rapid population increase, double sessions, a high dropout rate, and negative feelings toward Bellingham in general. In 1979, when a committee was contemplating who they should choose to be the new principal, they knew they needed someone who would view the job not just as a "stepping-stone" toward other career plans, but as an opportunity to help enrich the lives of students. Mr. Canestrari, they decided, was exactly the type of person they needed.

Over the past 17 years, Mr. Canestrari has taken our school off double sessions, decreased the dropout rate, increased the number of college-bound students, and initiated such programs as the Student Advisory Council, AP courses, and 5th year courses in foreign languages. Mr. Canestrari has been a valuable asset to this school system and will be greatly missed by everyone.

DEDICATED SERVICE

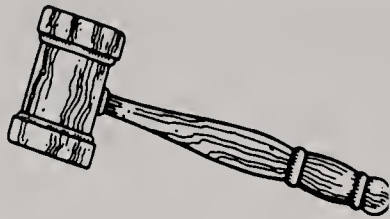

Mr. Canestrari, a loyal fan of our sports teams, can often be seen at athletic events.

Once again this year, with the assistance of the Jr. High Student Council, the Student Council of BHS helped to provide happy holidays for those in need in our Bellingham community.

Donations were collected from students and staff throughout the month of December by the Jr. High Student Council and their advisors.

Year after year, the students and advisors have provided the necessary time, talent and physical work required to keep this program in place and it seems to generate tremendous holiday spirit for all involved.

Meals are also provided for shut-ins and the needy at Thanksgiving.

"WINNERS"

The year of 1996 was one of fun and experience for the Bellingham High School Drama Club. For the first time ever, under the direction of Karen Dinehart, this fun-loving group made their way to Fall River in order to join in the Massachusetts Drama Guild Competition. Bellingham received the Best Ensemble Award along with a few outstanding acting awards. This triumph proved great on March 14, 15 and 16 when the Drama Club presented their full interpretation of the play "Winners", a story about the pressures and pleasures of teenage life. All three nights were huge successes.

Everyone did a great job. Good Luck Next Year!

SPORTS

CROSS COUNTRY

J.V.

The boys' cross country team had a very successful season this year posting a 5-2 record. The team was led by seniors Eric Bressan, Peter Connolly, and Rich Reynolds. Freshmen Adam Crawford and Pat Zielinski also ran well for the Hawks. Dedication and strong leadership were the keys for the team's success. The girls' team posted a 3-3 record this year. Sophomore Amy Heenan and freshman Alyssa Wernig led the team with many strong performances. Seventh grader Jen Penswick had a promising first season and should be very successful in the future. With a team totally comprised of underclassmen, the team can only get better.

SOCCER

VARSITY

The soccer team did not have a successful year as far as wins and losses go, 0-15-1, but it developed many young players such as Eric Swenson, Mark Curran, and Jake St. Germain. Look for these players to lead the team for years to come. Alex Ruiz had a fine year on his way to a league all-star. Brian Drake was also named a league all-star as well as an Eastern-Mass all-star. Jason Arel did a fine job in net, almost single handedly keeping the Hawks in games. Next year's team will be led by captains, Alex Ruiz, Nathan Racicot and Jake St. Germain. Good Luck!

VARSITY

SOUTH SECTIONAL CHAMPS

Once again the Varsity Field Hockey Team had a successful season. The Lady Hawks were led by senior tri-captains Julie Cialdea, Carrie Leoncavallo, and Jackie Pizzi. Cialdea proved to be strong, helping Pizzi earn a high of 49 shutouts in her varsity career. Leoncavallo also provided great strength, leading the Blackhawks with 13 goals and 13 assists.

Everyone contributed to the South Sectional Title, including the Hawks most improved player, Kerri Ostergren. On that unforgettable day, determination set the pace for Erica Babiaza. With the score tied and 51 seconds left in the game, the team looked to the 5'0 sophomore to score the winning goal.

Due to the graduation of seven seniors the '96 Field Hockey team will have a lot of talent to replace, BUT never underestimate the power of the Hawks. Juniors, Jessica Gulino and Valesay McDaniel will surely find a way!!

Good luck & thanks for the memories.

The seven seniors all played a key role in the winning season. They wish next year's team the best of luck — BEAT HOLLISTON!!

J.V.

Winning is only half the battle!

When it comes to high school sports it is the Varsity teams that the newspapers, classmates, and even sometimes teachers are most interested in. Junior Varsity sometimes does not get enough credit, but that does not seem to bother the young ones at BHS. For years now the J.V. team has been pouring in the wins, and the answer to how they do it is by simply having FUN!

The J.V. squad was led by co-captains Amy Bartlett and Kate Monahan. Bartlett was the leading scorer while Monahan also contributed to the offensive attack. On the other side of the field, talented goaltender Cindy Pultz received tremendous help from Aimee Morrisette.

Next year's J.V. squad will look forward to promising players like Becky Drake, Tracy Dennis, and Kati Degan. Good luck and make us proud Alice!

ALL BUT ONE . . .

of the girls' volleyball players should be returning next year except senior Jen Cushman. The Hawks were 12-8 before tournament and 13-9 after tournament.

There were some ups and downs for the girls this year. One of the ups was when they almost beat Medway during their first meeting. A definite down was when sophomore middle and power hitter Beth Gianusso was out for six games due to an ankle injury.

Four of the girls on the team made the Tri-Valley League all-star team. Making the first team were junior Valery Phillips and sophomore Beth Gianusso and making the second team were junior Carissa Smith and sophomore Lisa Benson. Everyone contributed to the excellent season for the Hawks.

After a mid-season slump, the Hawks finished the season with two wins, including a memorable 56-21 victory over Westwood. The Hawks All-Stars in '96 were Brian Cronin, Steve Mandile, Greg Wood, and Justin Bernard. The basketball team finished the season with a record of 13-9. Led by Tri-Valley League M.V.P., Tay Prescott, the Blackhawks made a strong run into the quarter finals of the State tournament, where they lost a close, controversial game to a tough team from Rockland. Although expectations for winning the league were high, the Blackhawks did have a winning season filled with hours of exciting, intense basketball. With the return of junior captain Larry Brown and other key juniors, plus the addition of two exciting freshmen, the Blackhawks should be winning again.

BREAKING THE TRADITION

If one were to look for a girls' basketball banner hanging in the gym, one would not be found. But the reputation of the girls' basketball team is about to change.

In the past the Lady Hawks have had a hard time finding success, but not anymore. This year the girls found a way to alter their past 2-17 record to 7-13. Although it does not seem very impressive, it was surely a significant change in the right direction.

The squad was led by Co-Captains Carrie Leoncavallo and Carissa Smith. Since Leoncavallo will be the only senior to graduate from the team, next year's crew has a promising future.

In time the Hawks will look for great success from the almost 6 foot All-Star, Lauren Clancy. Another key player to look out for is also currently a freshman. The duo of Clancy and Blue will continue to help the building process of the squad. Blue has tremendous speed. So good luck trying to keep your eye on her!

Thanks to the transfer from Mount St. Charles, the Hawks received a Woonsocket Call Honorable Mention. Jessica Udstuen added great depth to the team providing strength and height.

ICE HOCKEY

VARSITY

Senior captain, Brian Martin, led the offensive line with 17 goals and 27 assists.

Although the Hawks fell to Westwood by a score of 7-8, goalie Eric May managed to have many saves.

If one hears the Ice Hockey Team bragging, give them a pat on the back. The Hawks finished their TVL season tied for second place — And that's not all!

This year's squad was led by tri-captains Brian Martin, Michael Bournazian, and Matt Crawford. TVL All-Star and team MVP Brian Martin had a superb year with 17 goals and 27 assists. Bournazian and Crawford were also elected to the All-Star team.

Although it was a disappointing loss, the Hawks should be proud that they only lost to their rivals, Westwood, by one goal. Goalie, Eric May, also a TVL All-Star, had an outstanding game against Westwood.

The Hawks are keeping their heads high this year. It has been awhile since Hawks saw playoff time, and although they lost in their first appearance against Lynnfield, they were happy to have made it.

INDOOR

Mr. Cournoyer stands all alone, trying to figure out where his team went.

The boys' team posted a 2-3 record this winter. The team was led by seniors Mike Marchand, Chris Benjamin, Peter Connolly, and Eric Bressen. Marchand was the Tri-Valley League champion in the hurdles and also a TVL first team All-Star. Tri-captain Chris Benjamin was a key to the team's success in the sprints, high jump, and hurdles. Tri-captains Eric Bressen and Peter Connolly led the way in the distance running events. The team also had strong performances from Mark Cosgrove, Peter Trudeau, Sonny Milani and Zach Nethery.

The girls' team also recorded a 2-3 season. The team was led by Co-captains Katie Cameron and Jen Ceolinski. Ceolinski was a TVL champion in the high jump and also a TVL first team All-Star. Cameron earned a TVL honorable mention for her outstanding performance in the shot put. Sophomore Amy Heenan had a very successful year falling one race shy of an undefeated season in the hurdles. Beth Maynard, Jen Penswick, and Lakecia Porter were also keys to the team's success. The records of these two teams do not indicate their amount of success.

WEIGHTLIFTING

POWERLINE IV

In the winter of 1992 the students at Bellingham High School formed a weightlifting club under the direction of Head Football Coach Dale Caparaso. Coach Caparaso and his coaching staff have been entering the club in State, Regional and National "Drug Free" Powerlifting meets since that time. Over the last five years of competing, the Club has won three National titles (1992, 1993, 1994). This year, the Club competed in the Massachusetts "Drug Free" High School State Championships. For the first time in the short history of the club, the Powerline IV Club defeated the national powerhouse Coyle Cassidy High School to capture the State Championship. In this State Championship Meet the weightlifters won 15 first place trophies, 4 second place, 3 third place, 1 fourth, 1 fifth and 1 sixth place. In the process, the lifters broke 34 state powerlifting records. Both the boys' and girls' teams won State Championships.

Justin Bernard, a junior, helped the BHS powerlifting team capture first place.

Senior Craig Lombardi placed first in his weight class during the 1996 open high school powerlifting meet.

The Varsity Baseball Team lead by Tri-Captains Cory Rooney, Greg Wood, and Andy Baumgartner needed to finish the season with at least a .500 record to give themselves a tournament birth, but the Hawks fell just two games shy of this goal, finishing the season with a disappointing 8-11 record.

The Hawks will have some big shoes to fill next year because they are losing six seniors: Cory Rooney, Greg Wood, Andy Baumgartner, Brian Martin, Josh Steeves and Joe Deslauriers. On the other hand, they will have a returning pitching staff that includes Jamie Grillo, Jason Wills, Brad Luciani, Bob McManus, Shawn Sullivan and Jeff Ayotte.

Senior Carrie Leoncavallo led the team with a .410 batting average and was also elected to the TVL All-Star team.

During Mr. Baker's first year as head coach of the Varsity Softball Team, he found a way to piece together a working puzzle. The elected captains Carrie Leoncavallo and Jackie Pizzi helped lead their Coach and team to an 8-8 record in the TVL and an 8-11 overall record. Leoncavallo was also elected to the TVL All-Star team. Jessica Udstuen, a sophomore, battled on the mound and shows great potential in the coming years. Catching for Udstuen was Melissa Beaudin who had an outstanding year throwing out many runners and batting .351. Although the Hawks lost to their rivals, Holliston, they should be very proud of the way they played. The Hawks fell to the first place team by a score of 2-1. Next year's team looks promising with players like Jessica Gulino, Carissa Smith and Stacey Blue.

Kristina Zanchi saw most of her action in left field with a .800 fielding average.

Coach Baker has a successful first year with his girls. He shows great signs of taking next year's team even further.

Senior Melissa Beaudin had an outstanding year behind the plate.

Zach Nethery successfully hands the baton off to fellow junior Peter Trudeau.

Justin Prophet, Derek Ward, and Trevor Gasper.

The boys' track team recorded a 4-4 record this season. Coach Cournoyer credits the team's success to the outstanding senior leadership. Mike Marchand was a TVL All-Star and league champion in the high hurdles. Chris Benjamin was a TVL All-Star and was successful in the 100, 200, long jump and hurdles. Eric Bressan was a TVL All-Star in the high jump and scored points in the 400 and 800. Peter Connolly was a star in the mile and two mile throughout the season. Juniors Peter Trudeau and Zach Nethery added some versatility to the team in many different events including the sprints and jumps. Coach Cournoyer will be looking toward his underclassmen for success in the future. Joe Fortier, Sonny Milani, Pat Zielinski and Jason Brunetti are some to look for in the coming seasons.

Senior Mike Marchand ran away with this hurdle race.

TRACK

Sophomore Beth Maynard strives for victory all the way to the finish in this close race.

Kristie Howerton displays perfect form while airborne in the long jump competition.

As it was most of the season, Amy Heenan is all alone leading the way in the hurdles.

The girls' track team ran and jumped its way to a record of 3-4-1 this spring. The team was lead by Co-captains Jen Ceolinski and Katie Cameron. Ceolinski was a TVL All-Star with a 2nd place league finish in the high jump and also a 5th place league finisher in the 800. Cameron, the team's lone senior battled her way to success in the triple jump and javelin and also recorded a 4th place league finish in the shot-put. Once again sophomore Amy Heenan had an outstanding season. She was a TVL All-Star and league champion in the 100 hurdles and also a standout in the 330 hurdles. Lauren Clancy had a stellar first season as a member of the team. She was a TVL All-Star with a third place league finish in the javelin and was also a force in the other throwing events. Depth paid off for the team in many close meets. There was a lot of young talent. Look for Jen Penswick, Lakecia Porter and Asjia Thompson in the future. The team wishes their only senior, Katie Cameron, luck in her future and the recognition of being "The dirtiest girl in track."

There's no doubt who won this race. This displays the young talent and depth of the team.

Lauren Clancy throws the javelin with all her might in an attempt to spear Mr. Porter, our fearless leader.

Junior Jen Fortin tries to dream herself out of the race as sophomore Aimee Morrisette makes sure she is not the only one on the track.

Carrie Leoncavallo — a winner both academically and athletically. Carrie has taken numerous awards throughout her high school career. As a five-year starter for varsity field hockey, Carrie served as co-captain her junior and senior year. Serving 4 years on the BHS Varsity basketball team, she was co-captain her senior year. Carrie also played varsity softball for 4 years, and in keeping with the cycle, she was co-captain in softball as well, her senior year. As co-captain of three varsity sports, Carrie certainly held her own on the field & court at BHS. She had also been named to the TVL, Woonsocket Call, and Milford Daily News All-Star teams 3 consecutive years for all 3 sports.

As though Carrie's athletic endeavors were not enough of an accomplishment, she has won many victories academically. In her junior year she was inducted into the National Honor Society where she served diligently through her senior year. She was also Student Council vice-president her junior and senior years. Carrie will be attending Providence College on an athletic field hockey scholarship. We wish Carrie the best of luck.

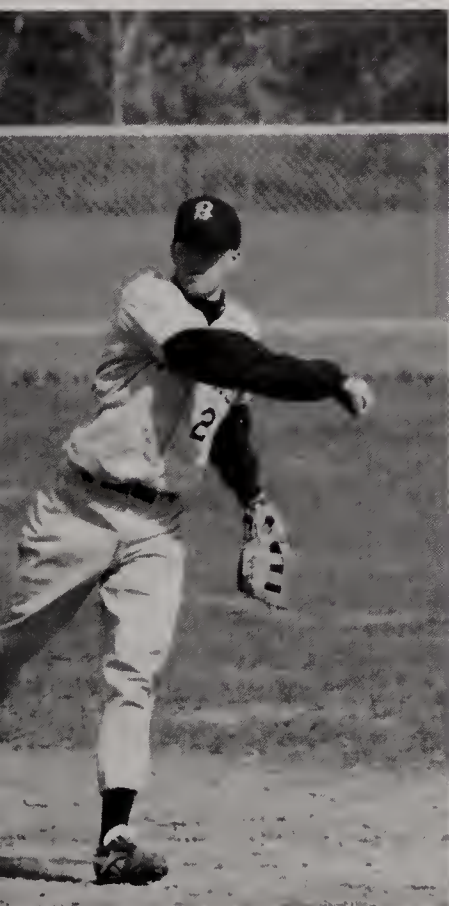

ATHLETES

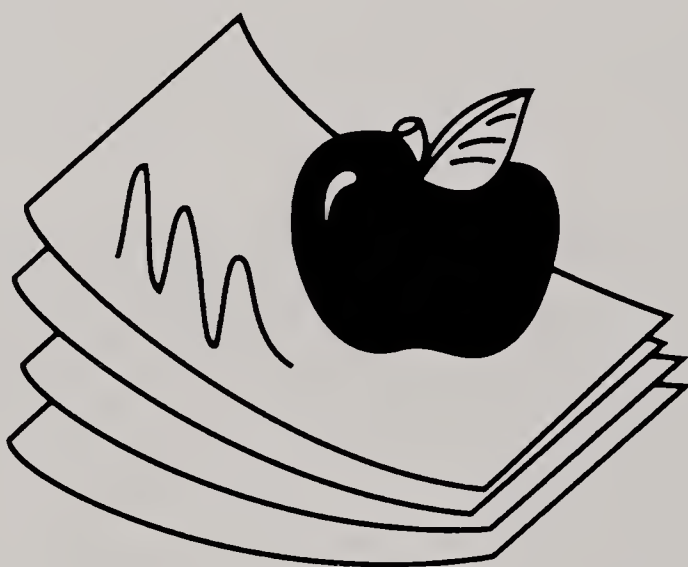

Cory Rooney — will be remembered as a leader at BHS both academically and athletically. He played on the BHS Freshmen basketball team and went on to play JV basketball in his sophomore year. During his junior and senior years, Cory played for the BHS Varsity basketball teams. Cory played baseball as well as basketball. Playing Jr. Varsity his freshmen and sophomore years, he moved up to Varsity his junior year. Cory served as a baseball co-captain his senior year. He shines as bright academically as he does athletically. He has been on Student Council 4 consecutive years. He was elected Student Council President his junior and senior year. Inducted into the National Honor Society as a junior, Cory's high academic standards allowed him to serve NHS through his senior year. Next year Cory is off to Providence College on an academic scholarship. We send him off with best wishes and we know he will continue on as a leader at Providence College.

On December 19, the scheduled Christmas party was hit by yet another snowstorm of the 1995-96 winter and was postponed until December 21. After almost another postponement we all trekked through the snow to Savini's Restaurant in Woonsocket. A night of dancing, singing, and eating helped us to forget the weather. After the dance, the festivities continued on at the McLaughlin's and other parties.

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1990 we entered Bellingham Jr.-Sr. Memorial as shy seventh graders from South, Stall Brook, and Macy elementary schools. Here we began our six years of friendship and unity as the class of 1996.

In 1991 we, as maturing eighth graders, joined the walk-out to support teachers who were being laid off.

In September of 1992 we entered high school as confused adolescents under the wings of Mrs. Recore and Mrs. Scott. Our freshman president was Melissa Trimm, vice president Greg Ringo, secretary Melissa Beaudin, and treasurer Julie Cialdea. Our field hockey and baseball teams set the stage for the future of B.H.S. sports with their T.V.L. championship crowns. That year our class also decided that we wanted to eliminate freshman semi-formals and instead chose a class trip to New York City.

In 1993 Mrs. Scott left us as advisor and a new advisor would join and stay with us, Mrs. Dyson. Our sophomore year would also take on two new officers; a new president Jen Cushman, vice president Greg Ringo, secretary Katie Cameron, and Julie Cialdea remained as treasurer. The B.H.S. Hawks dominated in sports yet again with a football superbowl championship, a second consecutive T.V.L. title for the field hockey team, and a co-champ T.V.L. title for the baseball team. On March 12 of 1994 we had our Ring Dance in the B.H.S. gym decorated in silver, purple, and blue. The class crowned Cory Rooney and Brianna Cifizzari as king and queen. The princes were Andy Baumgartner, Brian Cronin, and Brian Martin. And the princesses were Jessica Kelly, Nikki Haynes, and Danielle Bates.

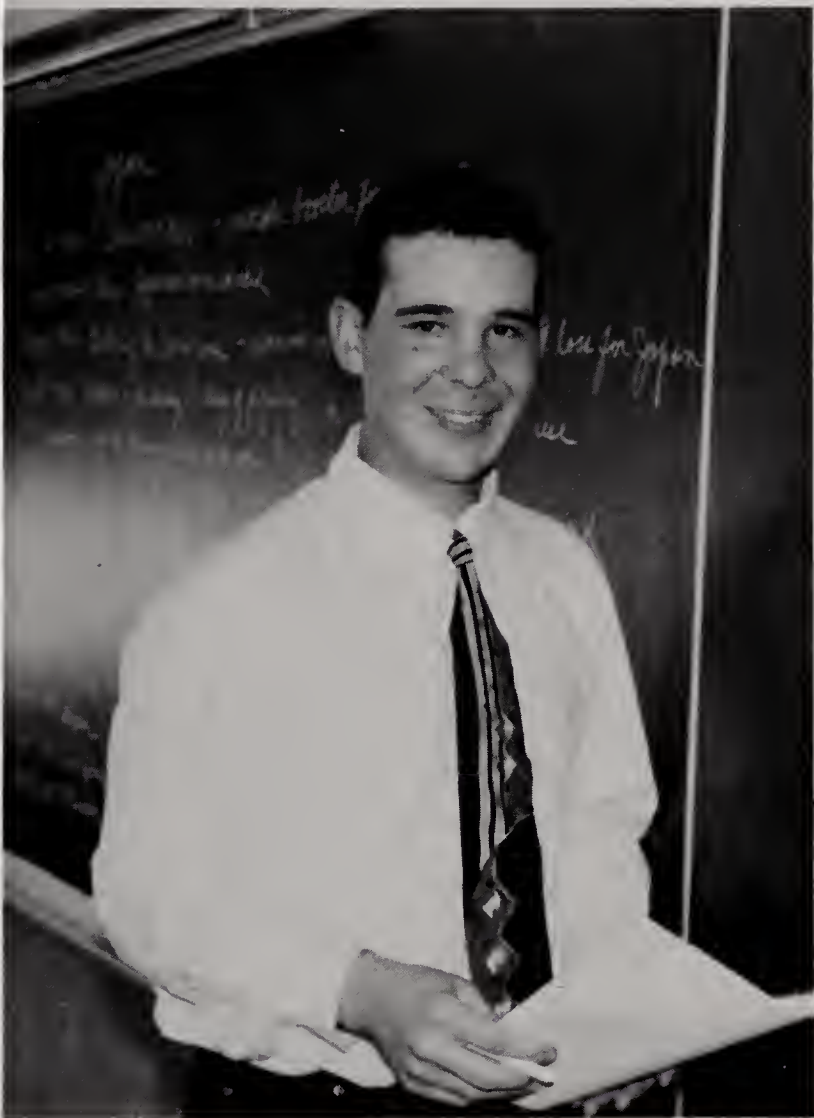

In September of 1994 we entered our last year of having to jump across the hallway to avoid the seniors. This year our class elected an all-girls office lead by Jen Cushman as president, Jessica Kelly as vice president, Katie Cameron as secretary, and Jamie Berger as our new treasurer. B.H.S. sports stood strong with a basketball league championship, a baseball co-championship, and a best-ever boys' track record. In December we attended our first junior/senior Christmas party. And who could ever forget Mr. Tardif and Mr. Beaulieu ripping up the dance floor just in time for retirement? On April 29, 1995, we attended our first junior/senior prom. We all danced the night away at the Glen Ellen Country Club in Medway surrounded by maroon and gold. The princes were Andy Baumgartner, Brian Martin, Tay Prescott, and Jason Zielinski. The princesses were Melissa Beaudin, Tammy Roy, Jessica Kelly, and Jen Creasia. Brian Cronin and Karen Rao were the king and queen.

Now we are finally seniors after attending five Class Days, today is ours! The class of 1996 has had a great six years! This year our class was lead by a new class president Luke Lavallee, Jessica Kelly and Katie Cameron remained the vice president and secretary, and Herbie Haswell became our new class treasurer. We also elected Valesay McDaniels and Justin Bernard to lead us in graduation as class marshals. This year our class accomplished many things. The football players of our class held the best overall record ever to enter B.H.S., and the field hockey players of our class won the 1995 South Sectional championship.

Our junior/senior Christmas party on December 21 was a reminder of the very snowy winter by first its postponement and then the inches of snow we drudged through to reach Savini's in Woonsocket. But the snow didn't ruin our eagerness to celebrate afterward at the McLaughlin's and other party places. Our junior senior prom, held at the Sheraton Tara in Framingham, was decorated in green and silver. The court consisted of Peter Connolly and Jessica Kelly as king and queen; Adam Wernig, Tay Prescott, Chris Benjamin, and Cory Rooney as princes; and Tracy Bartlett, Jen Cushman, Jackie Pizzi, and Carrie Leoncavallo as princesses. The theme song was "After All" by Peter Cetera and Cher. The party then proceeded to the Motel Six, the Cape, or friends' houses. The annual senior class trip was held at High Meadows on May 28, 1996. The incredible amount of food and activities kept everyone busy. While some were busy lip sincing Noble, E.R. kept busy thanks to Jessica Kelly, Liz Pignolet, and a couple of horses.

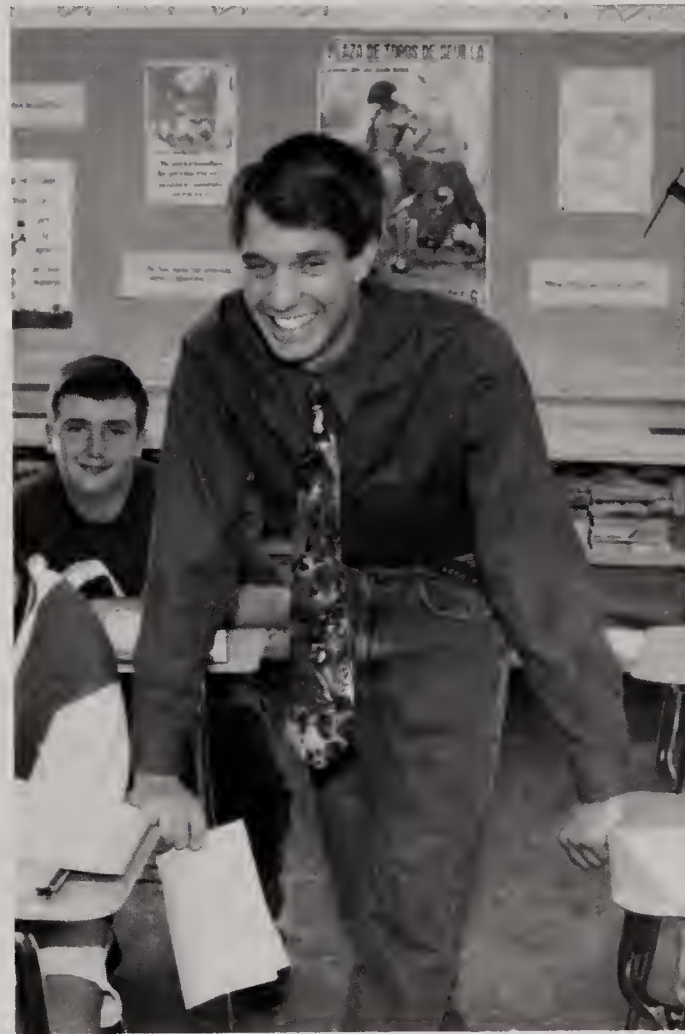

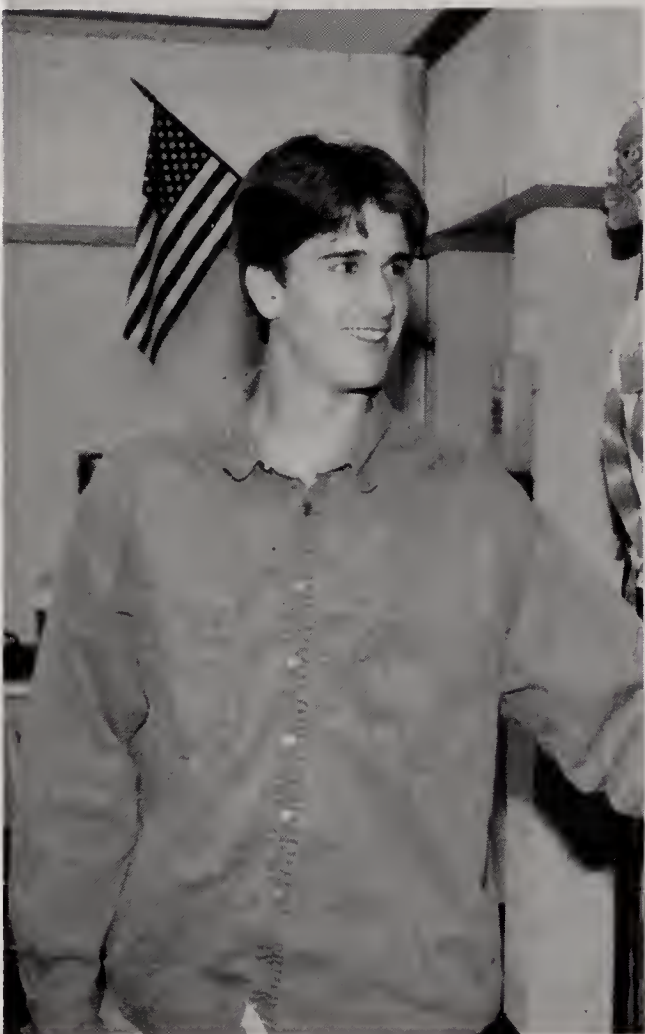

It's hard to sum up the past six years of our lives at B.H.S. But we each have made special memories and there are many memories waiting to be made. Best of luck to all, THE CLASS OF 1996!

VALEDICTORIAN

Alyson Love

I have been given a rather rare opportunity today, to speak to all of you at graduation, and I'm flattered. But I'm not going to waste this moment with sad good byes and talk of the future. Instead I am going to plead for your unselfishness and human compassion. But first I beg all of you to look within and know this; we all have our flaws and weaknesses and these are what makes us human. My weakness is that I am far too idealistic. But it is the pursuit of my ideals that brings me inner peace and a kind of salvation. My pursuits are my personal crusades. And so for a brief moment today, this is my salvation. My crusade is for you to listen.

No one individual can be free while others are oppressed. We cannot turn our backs upon those who are abused, those who have no hope. These people are just as deserving as us, they either had jobs, families, and dreams — or they aspired to them. Now all they have is fear, violence, and abuse. And if any hope exists for them, it exists in us. That is why, as a people, regardless of color or culture, we must unite to reach out from our own self-centeredness to those less fortunate.

There are many people, even in this great country under "freedom" that cannot feel the beauty of freedom and happiness, that do not know human compassion. These are the people you may see every day. These are the people your unselfishness may help. I am talking about the homeless, those who feel the burden of racism, all of those who are denied an education, and especially those living in fear in the inner cities. On a global scale I am talking about the people of the Republic of China practically living under a slave regime, those of Africa still fighting for freedom, and those in the war zones of Bosnia-Herzegovina. How can anyone live happily untouched by the suffering of others? I can not. I refuse to believe my happiness, our happiness, should come at the cost of others' ruin. Remember these people are just like us. So I beseech you to become involved and not to be apathetic or indifferent to the suffering of others. I implore you to learn to become more compassionate and less selfish. If you begin to take action my personal crusade will have begun. Thank You.

SALUTATORIAN

Robert Geib

Good afternoon. I'm honored to have been given the opportunity of speaking to you, the class of 1996, about your potential, your talents, and your responsibility to make this world a better and safer place for future generations.

You know, almost every day, when I pick up a newspaper or watch the 11:00 news on T.V., I always have a glimmer of optimistic anticipation. I always try to believe that I'm going to see or read about an event or person that reflects the best qualities of humanity and mankind. But more often than not, my hopes are shattered. Instead of learning of a kind act or of an astonishing new discovery, I'm witness to some of the greatest atrocities in the history of our civilization.

In this country alone, the level of crime has risen to a point where some areas of the city are not travelled in because they are the territory of organized gangs. Our justice system has become so biased that a poor man who is suspected of robbery is sent to prison for the rest of his life, while the rich man who is guilty of murder, beyond a shadow of a doubt, is set free because of his wealth and prestige. The government of this nation spends more of its money on defending our borders and developing new weapons of war than it does on helping the unemployed and divorced young woman who has to find some way to feed her four starving children. Race relations have regressed to a point where people refuse to get along with others who do not share their own values and beliefs. Finally, and most importantly, less and less money is being spent on education in this country. The one area which should be given the most attention is virtually ignored and seen as unimportant by a hedonistic and self-serving government. Somewhere along the way, we've lost our ideals and our vision of what this country really represents.

I could go on and on about the problems we, as a nation, face. But I think you get the picture. I'm not going to lie to you: we don't live in a perfect world. And the irony is that when people see this absolute truth presented to them, they choose to ignore it. They can always throw the newspaper in the trash and go shopping at the Mall or just change the channel from the nightly news to Must See T.V. on NBC. For, after all, "it's not their problem." As long as their own personal lives are O.K., everything is fine. Well, I say it is their problem. I say they're turning their backs on a world they helped to create. And I think that I can safely say, on behalf of everyone here, that starting today it is our problem as well.

So if the state of our nation today makes us wonder if there is any hope left, and if you question where to find the saving grace of this world, I have a pretty good suggestion: look no further than the closest mirror that you can find. Throughout our lives, we've always wanted to solve the problems of today, but realized that we just weren't old enough or experienced enough to make a difference. Well, those days of waiting are over. To use an old cliché, "Today is the first day of the rest of our lives," and the future starts today. Here. With us. We are, in essence, what Abraham Lincoln called the United States so many years ago: the last best hope for earth.

So I am asking you . . . I am pleading with you, to make a promise with me today: that we will not become apathetic; that we will try our best to make a difference; that we will help define the agenda, priorities, direction, and identity of our country; that we will help make our country the safe land of freedom and opportunity we all want for our children and those who will follow us. And that we will all use our unique talents, not for our own self-serving needs, but for the good of the world as a whole. As one of my childhood heroes, Captain James T. Kirk, once said, "The needs of the many far outweigh the needs of the few . . . or the one."

On a personal note, I am greatly going to miss Bellingham High School. The lessons and skills I have attained here will stay with me for the rest of my life. I feel honored to have been a part of this school system and to have gone through it with such a fine group of fellow classmates. As we spend our last few moments with each other tonight, together as a class, I'm sure we will reminisce about our experiences over the years and I also know that it's sad to have to end it all so soon. When we're young, we can't wait for this moment to arrive. And when it finally does, we want to remain where we are just a little bit longer. Personally, I feel that this is the end of only a single chapter in the grand story of our lives. The next chapters lead us to college and the world beyond. As I always remind myself at times like this: One has to live the journey itself. For every destination is but a doorway to another.

I wish you all the best of luck in your future endeavors and in all the opportunities which are open to you. May all your wishes be fulfilled and may your lives be full of success and happiness. Thank you and enjoy the rest of the graduation ceremony.

CLASS SONG

ONE STEP

What will this be tomorrow?
Just another day?
Scared to forget your faces,
Will I remember your names?

The time is coming closer,
Can't say good-bye,

I hoped you all would be
A part of my life.

(Chorus) One step away from forever,
Don't look away from the pictures in your mind,
The time is gone, my shoulder, never,
We'll all be one step away.

A smile from passers-by,
Could make your day,
If you were to give me the world,
I wouldn't trade that away

Everybody loves it,
Everybody feels it,
Everybody come together,
Everybody love one another

(Chorus)

like yours. Nobody's class ring should be either.*

When your class ring is from Balfour it can be as unique and special as you are. Because you choose the style, the stone, the decoration, the engraving — to express your interests, activities, feelings. Your own personal class ring from Balfour. No other can express who you are so exactly. Or help you recall those special times so clearly.
